“ She was always so loving and caring and full of life. She will always be missed and always be in my heart.

“ Mom was the most generous and wise woman I have ever know. She was loving, gracious and beautiful. She taught me something every time I spoke with her, which was just about daily. She did not teach with lectures and infinite knowledge. She taught by example and patience, in a way that made you pause and come to a realization. I cannot even count how many time I have said to myself, “mom was right again”;. She touched untold lives with her kindness. I will miss my mom every day. Mom, I love you. Until we meat again.

“ I was very sorry to hear of the passing of one of the nicest persons I have ever known. Marianne I can remember the good old days at Aunt Anne’s Candy Store on Hermitage Ave in Chicago. You and Tommy would come to visit. May you rest in peace. You and Tommy are united again.

“ My Aunt Marianne had an impact on my life since I was a baby. She welcomed me into her home, ALWAYS with a warm smile. There are so many wonderful memories of times spent with my aunt. She was a gracious hostess. Everyone was always welcome to come partake in ALL occasions. Room was made for everyone. The food was stacked high on the table to feed a HUGE crowd. I still marvel and wonder, how did she do that? Every square inch of the table was covered with amazing food, like her marinated chicken wings. (She gave me the recipe, but I was not able to make it as delicious as she was able to!) I will sincerely miss her, but fond memories will ALWAYS be with me. I feel blessed that she was in my life. I continue to pray for her and her lovely family.
Love,
Annie

“ My Dear Auntie Marianne,\r\n\r\nI wish I could be there today to comfort my cousins who are such beautiful well raised women.\r\n\r\nAuntie, you were always so sweet and kind to me. She was gorgeous and had a killer smile. I can still hear her laughing as we went to the flea market. I will miss you so much, especially our phone calls and visits. I pray for you and it brings me joy to believe and imagine you with my Dad, Uncle Tom, & Popo joking, and Grandma holding a cat. \r\n\r\nAuntie, until we meet again,\r\n\r\nLove, Prayers and Peace &#x1f497;
